

BRING 3 CANNED GOODS TO DONATE
TO THE MID-SOUTH FOOD BANK TO RECEIVE FREE ADMISSION!

59TH ANNUAL MEMPHIS GREEK FESTIVAL

Friday & Saturday, May 12th & 13th
11 am – 8 pm

Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church
573 N. Highland Avenue, Memphis, TN 38122

Rain or Shine—Free Parking
Shuttle Buses Provided*

Admission:

Adults $3 • Children $1 (ages 6-11)

Children 5 years old & younger are free

Bring 3 canned goods for the Mid-South Food Bank to receive Free Admission!

*Visit our website for more information

OPA!
*Celebrating culture,
cuisine & community*

www.memphisingreekfestival.com

Like us on Facebook • Follow us on Twitter @memgreekfest

OPA! OPA!

For 59 years the congregation of the Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church has had the pleasure and privilege of sharing their love for their Greek heritage, food, music and culture with the people of the Mid South. The festival will go on rain or shine! It's Mother's Day weekend so it is the perfect time to spend time with your wife, mother, grandmother or any woman that has influenced your life. Don't worry about shopping for a gift, our marketplace has wonderful gift items and fabulous jewelry that would please anyone!

 Bring 3 canned goods to donate
for the Mid-South Food Bank to receive Free Admission!

Visit us at www.memphisgreekfestival.com

Like us on Facebook

Follow us on Twitter @memgreekfest

59th Annual
Memphis Greek Festival
May 12 & 13 • 11am — 8pm

